

Lyme Art Association
presents

ART_{of}
New England

An Exhibition Featuring
Over 100 New England Artists

September 13 ~ October 19 2002

JUROR... EVERETT RAYMOND KINSTLER

The Lyme Art Association was fortunate to have Mr. Kinstler, a world renowned portrait painter, as the juror for the ART of New England Exhibition. Mr. Kinstler received the 1999 Copley Medal from the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery, Washington, D.C., the most prestigious award given a portrait artist. He is represented in the collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Brooklyn Museum, and the Butler Institute of American Art. He is a member of the National Academy of Design, the American Watercolor Society, the National Arts Club and the Pastel Society of America. A PBS documentary film on his life has recently been completed.

Many thanks to
Jeffrey Andersen, Director, Florence Griswold Museum, O. L.
Jeffrey W. Cooley, owner of The Cooley Gallery, O.L.
for selecting the prize winners.
